To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper.

Local Items.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores.

THE POST OFFICE.—A Post office is truly a democratic institution of the old style.

OUR THANKS ARE DUE TO MR. RICE OF THE ST. ALBANS HOUSE FOR COPIES OF THE SAN FRANCISCO BULLETIN.

FIRE.—An unfinished house belonging to E. H. Jones, and situated on Edward Street, in the Western Reserve.

NEW HATS, OYSTERS, &c.—We notice that a considerable number of new hats have been purchased and paid for recently by others than the wearers.

DERBY CENTER.—There are now residing in the little village of Derby Center, Vt., twenty-nine widows.

BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE.—The December number of this popular Magazine is received.

HAY FOR SALE! SIXTY TONS OF HAY For Sale at once, for Cash.

NEW Style of Fall and Winter Caps just received at WM. N. SMITH & CO'S.

m, Saturday, Nov. 21st. Persons interested are requested to attend this examination. The painter's brush has greatly improved the outside appearance of the stores of Messrs. H. E. and S. H. Lewis.

Messrs. Steele and Downing keep the genuine Baltimore Oysters which they sell by the pint, quart or gallon as cheap as the cheapest.

Lorenzo Jones, Esq., has purchased of Mr. Marshall Mason all the lots on the North side of the New Street, running from Messenger to North High Street.

IT COSTS MONEY TO PRINT A PAPER.—Some of the subscribers of the TRANSCRIPT, who are in arrears, we believe, must think otherwise judging from the fact that they don't "pony up," as they ought.

Advertising pays. If you don't believe it, reader, consult with Ayer, Helmbold, Radway, the Messrs. Fowle, or any other of the great advertisers of the country.

Would it not be well to have the Street lamps lighted dark nights? What were they put up for? For ornament's sake, merely?

THE AMERICAN COOKING STOVE.—Having been so eminently successful at the New York State Fairs for the past six years' having been brought in competition with all the best stoves in the country, and having each and every year taken the first premium, and some years two, and having gained a world-wide reputation, and a record of which any one may be justly proud, we would now announce for the consolation of those who have so signally and repeatedly failed in competing with it, and have been so sorely chagrined at their numerous and repeated defeats, that this stove is not entered at this fair for a premium, as premiums have ceased to be of any account; but it is entered only for exhibition, that its thousands of friends and admirers may have the opportunity of examining its various improvements.
